ALL SHEFFIELD FAVORITES FAIL.

The last day at Sheffield was disastrous to favorites. Of them only Dick Behan in the last race got even second place. The weather was warm, the track fast, and the attendance larger than usual.

The opening event was a mile for maidens, and very poor ones went to the post. Siddeolus was made favorite, with Scamp second choice. The best looking of the lot was Little Eyes, a three-year-old daughter of Little Minch. Little Scotch and Karrabu C made the running, but Vigars came fast at the end and won handily from Karrabu C with the favorite.

In the two-year-old race Loulou R was an odds on favorite. Nannie Dunn and Henry Clay were fractious at the post and delayed the start. Loulou R was off in front, but Vite led at the three-quarters. In the stretch Dr. Newman took command, and coming on, won handily by three lengths, Vite beating Loulou R a neck for the place.

There was a wild plunge on His Brother in the third race, and hardly anything else was backed. Laura C and His Brother made the running, the last named leading into the stretch. At the eighth pole Airlight came up and drawing away, won easily by eight lengths, Ida Wagner beating Laura C a head for the place.

Urania who was an even money favorite in the five furlongs, acted badly at the post. Virgie Dixon led to the head of the stretch followed by Uncas and Simmons. At the finish Uncas won handily by a length, with Virgie Dixon second a neck in front of Urania.

There were only five starters in the steeple-chase, and St Brandon was favorite. Miles Standish led nearly all the way round the first time, when St Brandon went to the front. In taking the water jump in the second round St Brandon stumbled on landing, when well in the lead, and fell. The horse got up and made a break for the jockey board, running into the fence, where he was caught. Blakely was not hurt. Shoemaker held the lead for two jumps, when Hercules went to the front and remaining there to the end won by five lengths from Shoemaker, the other two beaten off.

Dick Behan was favorite for the seven furlongs. Rapier and Dick Behan raced together all the way up to the sixteenth pole where Dick Behan had the advantage. Dorsey, however, brought up Rapier on the outside with a rush, and beat Dick Behan half a length, with Rapier third a head back. Messrs. Brown and Caesar Young, of the Villmar Stable, ran the winner up to $900, $500 over her entered price. She was bought in for $905. It was an expensive win for the stable as it did not back the mare for a dollar. Lakeside commences to-day and the card is a strong one. The meeting between Caesarian and Redskin in the seven furlongs race should be interesting.

TO-DAY'S REALIZATION.

From an official Metropolitan source DAILY RACING FORM is told that Requitat worked a mile and one half at Sheepshead Bay Thursday in 2:39½ with more than his weight up. The 1¼ miles was run in 2:10. It was the 1895 champion's Realization trial and Clayton was up. The work was more than smart. This year's Realization is worth some $30,000 and Jimmy Rowe has had his eye on it for months. Its field and history is displayed below.

Horses	Owners	Jockeys	Wt.
Requitat	Brook'd'le Stable	A. Clayton	119
Hastings	Blenston Stable	Griffin	118
Hamilton II	G. E. Smith	J. Hill	112
Merry Prince	O. H. P. Belmont	Taral	110
C'sellor Howe	Erie Stable	Doggett	109
Peep o' Day	J. H. McCormick	Hamilton	107
Formal	A. H. & D. H. Morris	Littlefield	107

The Realization's tabled history is:

The Louisville pooling last night on the announced starters was as follows:

Horse	Price	Horse	Price
Requitat	$50	Hastings	$40
Field	$10

From the same source comes the news that John McCafferty will sell all his horses, irrespective of class or value, and go to Europe the autumn to come. That means the public offering of Winged Foot and the other good ones, led by Arbuckle. Mr. Easton will sell them, and the stable items should bring a royal price.

MILWAUKEE MEETING FLANS.

RACING GOSSIP.

"Dare devil" Fitzpatrick, one of the best of American riders in his day, is the Milwaukee starter. Chris Fitzgerald, who is scales clerk for the Jockey Club tracks, could not get away to fill his engagement. So far the work of the other Fitz has been above the average. Why not? Fitzpatrick was a good horseman as well as a good jockey and he should control boys well and generally apply his experience to the sport of racing. The Milwaukee meeting, by the way, is not a financial success, though its racing is more than good. It has no local clientele. The Chicago closure of 1895 made it what it was then. But Charley Bush and Henry Johnson who furnish the Milwaukee sinews there, are cultivators. The best testimonial in this line is their success in New Orleans. They lost early to gain later on that meeting. The Milwaukee field is promising and the Bush and Johnson offerings gilt edged. No matter what Milwaukee's business may be, its promises will be kept to the letter.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Lissak is in the Indiana Stables being prepared for racing by Lew Dickerson, the Kentucky Stable trainer.
Riley Grannan, far ahead of his Eastern turf foray, has gone to England to see how he likes it racing.
Piggot, the jockey riding for Ed. Cornigan at Latonia, is Adolph Spreckels' boy, and loaned to his present employer.

Coney Island Club's Noble Offering.

The Coney Island Jockey Club—always in line on racing betterment—issues condition blanks for a special race for three-year olds to be run at its autumn meeting. The race is for $500 each, half forfeit, $7000 added, for three-year-olds, weight for age. Such a stake deserves all that is best in racing. Nominations to it close next Wednesday.
